Hepsiburada Announces Planned CEO Transition Effective from July 1, 2026

ISTANBUL, December 29, 2025 -- D-MARKET Electronic Services & Trading (d/b/a “Hepsiburada”) (NASDAQ: HEPS), a leading Turkish e-commerce platform (referred to herein as “Hepsiburada” or the “Company”), today announced that the Company and its current Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”) Nilhan Gökçetekin have agreed to begin a planned leadership transition, expected to be completed by July 1, 2026.

Over the past several years, Hepsiburada has focused on strengthening financial discipline and reinforcing its core foundations. With this phase well established, the Company and the CEO agreed that the coming period is the appropriate time to proceed with a leadership transition, while maintaining continuity and execution momentum. The transition is intended to take place following a smooth and carefully managed handover of responsibilities.

Hepsiburada’s chairman, Mikheil Lomtadze, said: “I have worked closely with Nilhan and would like to thank her for her contribution to Hepsiburada. During her tenure, Hepsiburada strengthened financial discipline and reinforced its ability to execute its long-term strategy. This transition has been planned jointly, with a clear focus on continuity and execution. Importantly, we have decided that Hepsiburada’s next phase of leadership will be built by promoting leaders from within the Company.”

Nilhan said: “I am proud of what our team has built at Hepsiburada. The Company today remains in solid financial health, supported by a resilient business model. I will continue to work closely with the Company and the leadership team to ensure a smooth and responsible handover and to support the Company’s long-term success. Following the completion of the transition, I will move on to a new professional challenge.”

Forward-Looking Statements

This press release includes forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the Safe Harbor provisions of the US Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, and encompasses all statements, other than statements of historical fact contained in this press release, and include but are not limited to, statements regarding the planned CEO transition. These forward-looking statements can be identified by terminology such as “may,” “could,” “will,” “expects,” “anticipates,” “aims,” “future,” “intends,” “plans,” “believes,” “estimates,” “targets,” “likely to” and similar statements.

These forward-looking statements are based on management’s current expectations. However, it is not possible for our management to predict all risks, nor can we assess the impact of all factors on our business or the extent to which any factor, or combination of factors, may cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statements we may make. These statements are neither promises nor guarantees but involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other important factors and circumstances that may cause Hepsiburada’s actual results, performance or achievements to be materially different from its expectations expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements, including conditions in the U.S. capital markets, negative global economic conditions, potential negative developments resulting from epidemics or natural disasters, other negative developments in Hepsiburada’s business or unfavorable legislative or regulatory developments. We caution you therefore against relying on these forward-looking statements, and we qualify all of our forward-looking statements by these cautionary statements. For a discussion of additional factors that may affect the outcome of such forward-looking statements, see our 2024 annual report filed with the SEC on Form 20-F (Commission File Number: 001-40553), and in particular the “Risk Factors” section, as well as the other documents filed with or furnished to the SEC by Hepsiburada from time to time.
