Legal Proceeding

On October 22, 2021, D-MARKET Electronic Services & Trading (“Hepsiburada” or the “Company”) became aware that a second putative class action lawsuit had been filed on October 21, 2021 by an alleged holder of the Company’s ADSs (as defined below), against the Company, board members at the time of the initial public offering, certain members of the Company’s senior management and the underwriters of the June 30, 2021 initial public offering of the Company’s American Depositary Shares (“ADSs”) (the “IPO”). The case is pending in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York as case no. 1:21-cv-08634.

The complaint, filed on behalf of a putative class of investors that acquired the Company’s ADSs that were issued in connection with the IPO, alleges claims under Sections 11 and 15 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. The complaint alleges that the Company’s registration statement (consisting of the prospectus and the registration statement filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission that was declared effective on June 30, 2021 in connection with the IPO (the “Registration Statement”)), omitted facts necessary to make the statements made not misleading, in connection with the Company’s revenue and sales growth.

Similar claims related to the Company’s Registration Statement were previously asserted in a complaint filed in New York State court as referenced in the Company’s report on Form 6-K furnished to the Securities and Exchange Commission on October 6, 2021.

The Company has not yet filed any formal response to the claims. The Company believes the claims are without merit and plans to vigorously defend itself in the litigation.
